Welcome to Jimm & Kaylene Derksen

Before settling in Lancaster, PA in 2005, the Derksens served on various mission teams in the U.S., the Netherlands, and Germany. Today they both work for Eastern Mennonite Missions, Jimm as Personnel Placement Coach and Kaylene as Director of Development. They are passionate about following Jesus and they love helping people discover God's call on their lives. They are currently enrolled in the Soul Care Institute, a two-year learning experience accredited through Fuller Seminary and based out of Potter's Inn in Aspen Ridge, Colorado. The Derksens love living in their row house in Lancaster city, drinking strong coffee, eating dark chocolate, vacationing around the Great Lakes, and worshipping at Sunnyside Mennonite Church. Jimm grew up in Leamington, and is the son of Ron & Helen Derksen.
