SOLI DEO GLORIA SINGERS

J. S. Bach faced some controversy in his career. Accusers said his compositions were too worldly. So he responded by putting this Latin phrase, in his own handwriting, on each of his pieces...

Soli Deo Gloria = To the Glory of God

Therefore, the choir typically performs one Bach piece at each concert.

SOLI DEO GLORIA SINGERS

Soli Deo Gloria has had several Musical Directors over the years: Paul Dueck, Nancy Dyck, Wes Shuttleworth, and Ann Dresser. Accompanist Helen Brown has been ever present! The choirs' inaugural season was 2001. The choir performs twice per year (Fall and Spring) and Covid has been it's only interruption.

Soli Deo Gloria Singers MISSION STATEMENT

This choir has been formed to provide a vehicle to joyfully glorify God through a commitment to musical excellence. The choir will strive to: touch and nourish the heart through the language of music; strengthen the church and UMEI connections to their German and Mennonite choral heritage; share this choral heritage with the broader community; broaden horizons by including some contemporary music as well as the familiar classics and spirituals; provide educational and financial support to UMEI Christian High School.

Soli Deo Gloria Singers produce a beautiful poster for each concert they perform (over 35).

This one is from December 2022

Thanks go out to the founders of the choir and to the wonderful support it receives from audience attendees. There are so many blessings in this group - so many joyful stories.

Example: Abe and George ushered at every concert until 2023.
